NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

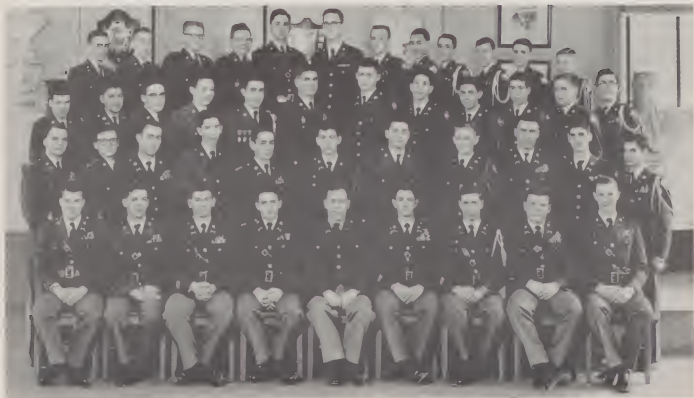

Seated, Left to Right: Minor Smith, Lt. Col. Persing, sponsor, and Bernie Corn. Standing: Edward Koch, Douglas Keith, Jimmy Don Maddox, and Robert Schwartz.

Western's chapter of the National Honor-Society, as the name implies, is a national organization. It is the highest honor group on the campus. Only a few Seniors can qualify for membership. They are selected by the Headmaster, aided by the faculty.

CHARACTER * SCHOLARSHIP * LEADERSHIP * SERVICE

Though scholarship is of great importance, a candidate must also meet the highest standards of character, leadership, and service to his school and fellow cadets. He must be a constructive influence for good on the campus. He pledges himself to "the service and perpetuation of the National Honor Society's aims and ideals, both on this campus and elsewhere.

ORGANIZATIONS

The MTO is one of Western's honor organizations. Unlike the Notional Honor Society, it is open to outstanding cadets from each class. The members are a group of hand-picked cadets who have proved their worth on the campus. They are chosen because of their leadership, academics, deportment, and, above all, their service to the school.

This is the newest organization on the campus, as it was founded only two years ago. Captain Malone helped draw up the charter and at present sponsors the MTO. It is an influence for good at Western, and from this group will come future members of the Notional Honor Society.

THE HONOR GUARD

The Honor Guard is Western's crack drill squad. Made up of underclassmen chosen because of appearance, proficiency in drill, and excellence in academic and military work, these cadets welcome distinguished visitors, give complicated drill exhibitions, and appear at special events such as commencement. Wearing white helmets, white neck cloths, and white belts, and carrying rifles with white slings, they never fail to win applause with their precision movements. Kushkin was the commander this year. The Honor Guard is one of Western's proud units.

The Raiders won 2 and lost 6 games. In only one battle were they outclassed. Several other contests, with a few breaks, could have been Western victories. The big thriller was the final ding-dong game with Burroughs.

Cooch Lone Goodwin in his first year at Western and with green material did a fine job. Schifferdecker, Smith, J. M., Rudmon, Tonurchis, and Mogee were big ground-gainers. Koch, Dahm, Schwartz, Maddox, and Malamos, along with others, were towers of strength. The season was full of good football and excitement.

WESTERN'S HARRIERS

Captain Lane Goodwin really had a much better varsity team than the record shows. The Raiders, unable to use the unfinished field house at the start of the season, had to practice upon a small court and play the first nine games away from home. It was then that they lost most of their games.

The second half of the season found them clicking, and they wound up by tying for second place in the A.B.C. League. Magee and Rudman of Western were the 2nd and 3rd top scorers in the conference. Wilson and Tanurchis became great offensive players, with Junge and Hearst coming strong. Many people thought that Western had the best team in the league at the end of the season. Principia, the champion, beat the Raiders by one point in one game. The cadets showed remarkable improvement under Coach Goodwin.

Western cadets always have several big, important formal dances during the year with girls invited from far and near. The first is the football dance just before Thanksgiving. The Military Ball in mid-winter is one of the most colorful. The climax of the social season comes at commencement with the Junior Prom, staged by the Juniors, in honor of the Seniors. Outside orchestras, receiving line, the grand march, and lovely girls all add up to an occasion of beauty and enjoyment.

Thursday was news night at Western, for that was when the weekly school paper, "The Shrapnel," was distributed in the mess hall.

"The Shrapnel" was an important part of school life. The cadet journalists covered all of the news on the campus as well as the gossip and coming events. The paper was sent to most of the parents, and at times extra alumni editions were mailed to all grads. Maj. Hinton and Capt. Sutton as sponsors did a wonderful job.

The Circulation Staff had the responsible task of distributing papers and folding them for the mailing list. It was a very efficient group.

The publication of the yearbook was a big task. No one could know the work involved until he actually got into it. The "Recall" had to be planned, photographs made, material written and assembled, layouts formed, and deadlines to be met. As the result, the job finally fell upon a few loyal and faithful members who were willing to carry on to the finish.

The members of the Staff owe much to Maj. Hinton for his help as faculty sponsor. Without his work and guidance, the yearbook could hardly have been produced. The Staff members wish to express their thanks to him.

The Recall always has had the tradition of paying its bills. The successful financing this year was due to those cadets who secured advertising and subscriptions. But above all, appreciation must be expressed to business firms, patrons, and friends for their generous support.

THE CADESPIANS PRESENT

Maj. R. P. Mortin, Director of Dramatics, has presented many outstanding plays each year with costs made up entirely of cadets. His productions have often gained national recognition. He has the ability to bring out the best in actors and stage crew.

Western's local dramatic club is The Cadespions. After meeting certain rigid qualifications, the cadet actors and technical stage men are inducted into the W.M.A. chapter of the national organization, The Thespions.

WE'RE GOING WITH YOU

Whether you know it or not, almost every day of your school year you've used a product made by Olin Mathieson, or one that Olin Mathieson helped make. Just read the list on the right, and you'll see what we mean.

Once you're established in business or professional life, you'll probably hear a lot more about Olin Mathieson. A good many of you may have business with us. And a few of you may even come to work for us. There'll be room because Olin Mathieson is growing. When Olin Industries, Inc., merged with the Mathieson Chemical Corporation in August, 1954, they brought together the skills, facilities, and resources of two of the country's most rapidly expanding industrial organizations. You and the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation will meet each other often as we do.

Meanwhile, we extend our best wishes to you graduates of Western Military Academy. May the future bring you everything you've hoped for and worked for.

TRADITION . . .

Development Of Integrity, Loyalty, and Reliability are traditional in the character building programs of educational institutions such as Western Military Academy.

In Commerce and industry, too, these qualities are sought — not only in the people who make a business go, but also in the reputation of the business itself.

We Salute the young leaders of the future who are gaining this sense of social responsibility — for their tradition will be the tradition of success.
